

Educational Opportunity Program Success Rates

California State University San Marcos

The mission of EOP is to provide low-income, first-generation and/or traditionally underrepresented college students with comprehensive support services in their pursuit of a university degree. Statistics from Cal State San Marcos, shown below, demonstrate that EOP programs have high success rates for enrollment and retention of students from underrepresented populations.

