Chair Linscheid called the meeting to order and asked the board to take one item out of order due to a time constraint:

Conferral of Title of President Emeritus: Robert A. Corrigan

Trustee Achtenberg moved the item; there was a second. The Board of Trustees approved the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Dr. Robert A. Corrigan served as the 12th president of San Francisco State University from September 1988 to July 2012; and

WHEREAS, he assumed the helm at San Francisco State University as the institution was in the midst of transition and used his considerable collaborative abilities to establish a rapport between administration and faculty that has made the institution flexible and responsive in the service of its students; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Robert A. Corrigan established social justice and equity as campus hallmarks leading the Princeton Review to designate SF State as a “College with a Conscience” and a recent WASC review team to conclude that, “SFSU can indeed claim that social justice is part of its DNA. The evidence is pervasive throughout the campus community;” and

WHEREAS, his commitment to diversity has literally changed the face of the campus—evidenced by the hiring of approximately 1,000 faculty over 24 years, 70 percent of whom were women or people of color and by a student body that is 58 percent female and 70 percent people of color; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Robert A. Corrigan’s leadership in national higher education, including the Association of American Colleges and Universities, the American Council on Education, the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, and his service to President Bill Clinton as head of the steering committee of presidents for the “America Reads” and “America Counts” initiatives, has helped put San Francisco State University and the California State University at the forefront of important national conversations; and

WHEREAS, his acknowledgement of the importance of educating for the global society has led to San Francisco State University becoming one of the top destinations for international students seeking Master’s degrees and a leader within the CSU in the number of undergraduates studying abroad; and

WHEREAS, he made San Francisco State a central partner in regional economic development and embodied SF State’s institutional commitment to its community by serving two terms as the chair of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, served on the Mayor’s Biotechnology Advisory Council, the Children, Youth and Family Policy Council and was named “Most Admired CEO” by the San Francisco Business Times; and

WHEREAS, following Dr. Robert A. Corrigan’s example, students at San Francisco State University contribute more than 500,000 hours of service to their community each year; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Robert A. Corrigan has worked diligently to provide students and faculty with an environment that is consistent with the importance of their work - opening the Downtown Center facility in the heart of San Francisco, revitalizing the Romberg Tiburon Center for Environmental Studies, facilitating the revitalization of the J. Paul Leonard and Sutro Libraries, and laying the groundwork for a new Recreation and Wellness Center and the Mashouf Performing Arts Center; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees of the California State University confer the title of President Emeritus on Dr. Robert A. Corrigan, with all the rights and privileges pertaining thereto.

Chair Linscheid moved the item; there was a second. The Board of Trustees approved the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Albert K. Karnig served as CSUSB's president from August 1997 to August 2012—just the third president in CSUSB's 47-year history; and

WHEREAS, He oversaw the addition of CSUSB's first doctoral and engineering programs as well as two Master of Fine Arts programs; and

WHEREAS, During his presidency, more than 1.5 million square feet of facilities were constructed including the Murillo Family Astronomy Observatory and four buildings at the Palm Desert Campus, the latter with $40 million raised entirely from contributions from private foundations, municipalities, and individuals; and

WHEREAS, He launched the President's Academic Excellence Scholarship program in 2002, resulting in (to date) more than 300 of the top 1 percent of San Bernardino County high school students accepting the scholarship; and

WHEREAS, His commitment to educating students in the Inland Empire has resulted in the second-highest enrollment of African American students among California public universities, the second-highest enrollment of Hispanic students, a nearly 90 percent first- to second-year retention rate, a score on the Collegiate Learning Assessment in 2011 in the 96th percentile, and the launch of the Student Success, Graduation and Career Placement Initiative designed to greatly expand academic and student services support for CSUSB students; and

WHEREAS, It is altogether fitting that the California State University recognize those members who have made fundamental and historic contributions to this system of higher education; now, therefore be it

RESOLVED, by the Board of Trustees of the California State University, that this board confers the title of President Emeritus on Albert K. Karnig, with all the rights and privileges thereto.

Conferral of Title of President Emeritus: William B. Eisenhardt (RBOT 09-12-09)

Chair Linscheid moved the item; there was a second. The Board of Trustees approved the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Dr. William B. Eisenhardt served as president of The California Maritime Academy from July 2001 to July 2012; and

WHEREAS, during his 11 years as president Dr. Eisenhardt presided over the opening of two new academic buildings, a new residence hall and the transformation of the synthetic turf athletic field, and commenced planning for a $18 million dining hall and $34 million physical fitness and water survival center; and

WHEREAS, during his tenure enrollment at Cal Maritime doubled, with nearly 20% women students and over 30% under-represented minority groups; and

WHEREAS, during Dr. Eisenhardt's tenure charitable giving to Cal Maritime increased fivefold, including a $3 million donation establishing the ABS School of Maritime Policy and Management; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Eisenhardt led the planning and development of Cal Maritime's $15 million Simulation Center, which is now recognized as one of the finest such training facilities in the world; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Eisenhardt increased Cal Maritime's national and international exposure, with Cal Maritime being named by U.S. News and World Report and Forbes magazines as one of the top U.S. colleges; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Eisenhardt has spent his life and career in the service of this country and higher education, and in view of his contributions, it is fitting that he be recognized by the California State University; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, by the Board of Trustees of the California State University, that this board confer the title of President Emeritus on Dr. William B. Eisenhardt, with all the rights and privileges thereto.

Commendation of Community Colleges Chancellor Jack Alan Scott (RBOT 09-12-10)

Chair Linscheid moved the item; there was a second. The Board of Trustees approved the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Chancellor Jack Scott in his role as leader of the largest community college system in the nation has worked tirelessly to serve its students and the institution; and

WHEREAS, while serving in the California Assembly and the State Senate, Dr. Scott authored 146 bills, many of which focused on education in California; and

WHEREAS, during his legislative career, Jack Scott was a true advocate for the California State University working to ensure that key legislation to the university was thoughtfully considered; and

WHEREAS, while chairing the Senate Education Committee, he was instrumental in securing the passage of legislation allowing the California State University to offer a doctorate in education, thus moving forward the university's ability to further serve its students; and

WHEREAS, an ongoing priority during Jack Scott's tenure was encouraging and supporting students in following efficient pathways to a degree during their college careers thus supporting their success in being prepared for further education; and

WHEREAS, Chancellor Scott's priority was always to serve students and expand opportunities for them to learn, he made a partnership between the California State University and the California Community Colleges a priority; and

WHEREAS, this ongoing partnership led to the collaboration of both systems streamlining the path of success for all students pursuing higher education; and

WHEREAS, recognizing the vast importance of a student's ability to transfer from a community college to complete their degree at a four-year institution, Jack Scott worked with the legislature and the California State University to pass Senate Bill 1440 – the Student Transfer Achievement Reform (STAR) Act; and

WHEREAS, working in partnership with the California State University and the California Community Colleges, the STAR Act will guarantee students who follow a designated pathway to an associate's degree will be given enrollment priority and junior standing at a California State University; and

WHEREAS, once fully implemented, the Transfer Degree program will improve efficiencies at both university systems by eliminating excess units that transfer students accumulate and provide greater access to more students by helping them move through the Community College system and the California State University system and graduate; and

WHEREAS, following the adoption of the Student Success Task Forces' 22 recommendations, Chancellor Scott introduced legislation to begin the implementation and approval of several key portions of the plan; and

WHEREAS, in every effort and program Jack Scott has supported or developed, he has gone above and beyond in ensuring that students' needs and educational attainment is the priority; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Board of Trustees of the California State University, that this board commends Chancellor Jack Alan Scott on his accomplishments during his service to the California Community Colleges, its students, faculty and staff.

Trustee Mehas moved the item; there was a second. The Board of Trustees approved the following resolution:

RESOLVED, by the Board of Trustees of the California State University, that a California State University Policy for Approving High School Career Technical Education Courses for CSU Admission is adopted as follows:

1. In satisfaction of Education Code section 66205.8, the CSU criteria for evaluating high school Career Technical Education (CTE) courses proposed for area “g” elective course requirement are the same evaluation criteria used in the shared CSU and UC “a-g” review process.
2. If a CTE course falls outside the range of courses in the established shared intersegmental UC and CSU criteria, as documented in the UC “a-g” Subject Area Requirements, the course reviewed for CSU admission must address a domain associated with a degree program offered by the CSU.
3. For courses considered only for CSU admission, if the domains of study are outside the confines of shared intersegmental “a-g” criteria, the CSU may adopt course review standards in addition to those on the “a-g” Subject Area Requirement.
4. Existing CSU course standards shall be used to determine course eligibility.
5. If no such CSU standards exist, a course may be evaluated by using standards for courses that are roughly equivalent to the proposed course.
6. Appropriate Chancellor’s Office staff will perform the initial screening. Any resubmitted application shall be considered by a subject-matter expert (or experts) approved by the Academic Senate CSU (ASCSU) including faculty of the CSU as appointed by the ASCSU.

The Chancellor is authorized to amend these procedures, based on recommendation from the ASCSU.
