Approval of the Minutes

The minutes of the July 24, 2024, meeting were approved as submitted.

Before moving to the remaining business of the committee, Trustee Rodriguez acknowledged a public comment regarding advocacy efforts. She emphasized that the CSU is dedicated to advocacy and is developing a robust advocacy plan that will include all stakeholders, including faculty, students, alumni, presidents, staff and other partners. She also thanked Chancellor García and President Perez for representing the CSU at the NAGPRA hearing in August.

Update on NAGPRA and CalNAGPRA Compliance

Greg Saks, vice chancellor for external relations and communications and Nathan Dietrich, assistant vice chancellor for advocacy and state relations, provided an update on the work being done at the systemwide level to comply with NAGPRA and CalNAGPRA and to implement AB 389.

Assistant Vice Chancellor Dietrich reported that an oversight hearing was held on August 6 by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee and the Assembly Select Committee on Native American Affairs. The focus was on both the CSU and the UC, and Chancellor García and Chico State President Perez both testified. Issues raised by legislators included how long it will take for full repatriation, how much funding is needed, the role of campus committees, how the state can hold the CSU and the UC accountable, and the roles of archaeology departments and field schools.

He also provided an update on the development of the systemwide NAGPRA policy. The CSU held 10 listening sessions this spring and has sent a copy of the draft policy to each Tribe on the Native American Heritage Commission's (NAHC) statewide list for consultation purposes in July. The 90-day consultation period will run through November 30. Additional consultation sessions with Tribes on the draft policy will be held at Chico State, San Diego State, in the Imperial Valley and virtually. After the consultation period, the policy will be refined and shared further with the NAHC, Tribes and across the Chancellor's Office. The CSU will hold a final 30-day consultation period with the Tribes in May 2025.

Funding has been assigned to the universities to support the repatriation of ancestors and cultural items. The 2024-2025 operating budget request included $4.25 million for NAGPRA and CalNAGPRA compliance. $3.4 million was allocated to the 21 universities with collections. Each university was allocated between $115,000 and $200,000 based on the size of their collection. Funds may be used to support repatriation-related costs, including hiring and training staff, supporting university committees, engaging in Tribal consultation, and fulfilling Tribal requests. $550,000 was allocated to the Chancellor's Office to support the systemwide efforts, including personnel, training, a collection management system and travel.

Assistant Vice Chancellor Dietrich provided additional key updates and priorities:

- Twenty of the 21 universities now have a NAGPRA coordinator. The remaining university had to repost their position after not attracting a qualified candidate.
- Universities are currently conducting a thorough search across campus for all Native American remains and cultural items that must be included in the university's NAGPRA and CalNAGPRA inventories.
- For the campus-based NAGPRA committees, there are now 29 committee members appointed at 13 universities. There are still 118 openings, and the CSU is redoubling its efforts to attract qualified applicants.
- The recruitment for the executive director of tribal relations is currently underway. This position will lead the Office of Tribal Relations and report directly to the vice chancellor, external relations and communications.

Cal State San Bernardino President Tomás Morales shared updates from the universities on behalf of his fellow presidents:

- Sonoma State hired a director of tribal relations;
- San Francisco State held 13 consultation sessions with 10 Tribes and was awarded a $100,000 federal grant from the U.S. National Park Service to support its university's repatriation efforts;
- Sacramento State submitted nine notices to the Federal Register and physically transferred a collection to the Konkow Valley Band of Maidu for reburial;
- San Diego State repatriated two separate collections of cultural items to the Santa Ynez Band of Chumash Indians and the Rincon Band of Luiseño Indians;
- Cal State Fullerton and UCLA are working on joint consultation and repatriation of five Orange County site collections; and
- Staff and students from several universities will join Chancellor García in Sacramento on Friday for Native American Day.

Trustee Rodriguez thanked the presidents and the campus coordinators for their intentional work; it is evident that the CSU is making an effort and creating meaningful change. Trustee McGrory asked if there is a way to establish a metric on how the CSU is doing on repatriation. Assistant Vice Chancellor Dietrich said there are three metrics: 1) the number of consultations; 2) the number of notices in the Federal Register; and 3) the completion of repatriation. Trustee McGrory and Trustee Rodriguez asked for data on repatriation efforts.

State Legislative Update

Vice Chancellor Saks shared that the legislature concluded its session on August 31. The Advocacy and State Relations team and colleagues across the system worked hard to secure a favorable outcome on many bills introduced this session.

Assistant Vice Chancellor Dietrich reported that all three of the board's sponsored bills have successfully passed the legislature (AB 3290, AB 2395 and AB 2005). He shared highlights from the legislative session, including bills addressing Title IX, hazing liability, nursing programs and undocumented student employment.

He also provided a recap on recent advocacy activities, including upcoming legislative staff visits at CSU San Marcos and San Diego State, and gave a preview of some of the issues that may be addressed in the next legislative session.

Trustee McGrory believes the CSU needs to come up with another strategy to address its aging facilities since the state has not included the CSU in the public educational facilities bond in 18 years. Trustee Rodriguez would like to investigate the possibility of changing legislation that would allow the CSU to have its own bond measures like K-12 and community college districts. Trustee Lopez asked why the governor has not yet signed AB 2395. Trustee Yee-Melichar asked how the CSU is preparing for the possible implementation of AB 2005 and AB 2395. In the next legislative session, Trustee Vargas stated that the CSU needs to advocate for all its students, including undocumented students, by talking about workforce development and how these students contribute to the state. He also shared a UC study that enrollment of low-income, undocumented students has declined by half at the UC and the CSU. Trustee Rodriguez expressed her appreciation to the campuses for the DREAM centers and all the services that support undocumented students.

Trustee Rodriguez adjourned the meeting.

COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS

Update on NAGPRA and CalNAGPRA Compliance

Presentation By

Greg Saks
Vice Chancellor
External Relations and Communications

Nathan Dietrich
Assistant Vice Chancellor
Advocacy and State Relations

Summary

This agenda item provides an update on systemwide compliance in relation to federal and state laws that require the repatriation of Native American ancestral remains and cultural items that are in a university's possession or control.

Background

The January 2024 Board of Trustees meeting included a discussion on systemwide and university compliance in relation to the federal Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), the California Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (CalNAGPRA), AB 389, and the 2023 state audit. The Board of Trustees has requested updates at future meetings on progress made towards meeting our responsibilities under state and federal law.

California Native American Day

Chancellor Mildred García was invited by the organizers of the California Native American Day celebration to speak at the annual event that was held at the State Capitol on September 27, 2024. She took the opportunity to apologize to the Tribes, tribal leaders and the tribal communities in attendance for the harm and trauma the CSU's lack of repatriation has caused and continues to cause Tribes. Furthermore, the Chancellor stressed that the CSU is committed to the full repatriation of all ancestors and cultural items that are in the possession or control of our universities, while also building trust and working in partnership with Tribes on a number of issues.

State Audit Update

As previously reported at the July Board Meeting, the Chancellor's Office submitted its one-year response to the California State Auditor, which details the progress made on the auditor's eight recommendations. The State Auditor has determined that the recommendations associated with the Chancellor's Office administrative structure and budget estimates have been fully implemented, while the remaining items are still in progress. The next report to the State Auditor is due in June 2025.

Systemwide Policy Development and Listening Sessions

AB 389 requires, and the 2023 state audit recommends, that the Chancellor's Office adopt a systemwide policy to better implement the state and federal NAGPRA laws that includes conducting meaningful consultation and timely repatriation. AB 389 requires that this policy must be done in consultation with Tribes and the Native American Heritage Commission (NAHC). In July, the Chancellor's Office shared a working draft policy for tribal consultation purposes with California Tribes and the NAHC. A formal 90-day consultation period for Tribes will run from September 1 through November 30. Several one-on-one Tribal consultation meetings have taken place. In addition to holding individual virtual consultations and open forum discussion sessions, the Chancellor's Office met with Tribes in the San Diego, Inland Empire, Chico, and Los Angeles areas. As of October 31, more than a dozen Tribes have taken part in consultation sessions.

The remaining schedule, with additional descriptions, for the systemwide policy development process is below:

September 1 – November 30, 2024	90-day Tribal consultation period of the working draft policy
December 1 – December 31, 2024	Tribal feedback reviewed and incorporated into the working draft policy to develop the draft of the Systemwide NAGPRA Policy
January – March 2025	Draft Systemwide NAGPRA Policy released for review by all stakeholders including Tribes, NAHC, and CSU; consultation opportunities will be offered
April 2025	Incorporate stakeholder feedback to develop the final draft of the Systemwide NAGPRA Policy
May – June 2025	Final draft of the Systemwide NAGPRA Policy stakeholder review period. Additional feedback received will be incorporated.
July 2025	Adoption and implementation by CSU

Campus Coordinators

AB 389 requires campuses with Native American remains and cultural items to have full-time, experienced repatriation coordinators on or before July 1, 2024, to ensure that universities pursue timely repatriation. The state audit also recommended that universities employ full-time coordinators. As of November 15, 2024, all 21 of the universities required to have a full-time experienced coordinator have hired one.

Additionally, across the CSU, the Chancellor's Office staff and university leaders continue to work with all coordinators as they begin, or continue, their work on conducting campus inventories, consulting with tribes, and undertaking the repatriation process.

Systemwide Committee and Campus Committees

AB 389 requires the creation of systemwide and campus-based NAGPRA committees; the state audit also recommends it. The law requires the NAHC to review applicants and nominate them to the chancellor for appointment. Each systemwide and campus-based committee will include four voting Tribal representatives and three voting university members. At the NAHC's October 18, 2024, meeting, 21 committee members were nominated, and the Chancellor has appointed each to their campus committee. In total, 50 committee members have now been appointed to committees at 19 universities. Chico State has a full committee, and quorums exist at San Diego State, San Francisco State, Sacramento State and Sonoma State.

More than 100 additional committee members are still needed across the system. The NAHC will continue to take applications for nominations for committee members until all positions are filled. The CSU will continue to encourage qualified applicants to apply for committee positions, and the NAHC will continue to review and nominate committee members. Earlier this year, the NAHC and Chancellor's Office decided to prioritize filling campus committees before nominating applicants to the systemwide committee.

Prohibition on Teaching, Research, and Display

AB 389 and the new federal regulations place an additional emphasis on prohibiting the use of ancestral remains or cultural items that are in a university's collection for the purpose of teaching, research or display. On March 18, 2024, Chancellor García issued a memorandum directing university presidents to abide by the state and federal regulations and to ensure ancestral remains or cultural items that are in a university's collection are not used in teaching, research or are on display. The future systemwide policy will include this prohibition and federal Duty of Care requirements.

Status of Inventories

AB 389 requires the CSU to report to the legislature on the progress that each university has made reviewing its collections of Native American ancestors and cultural items by December 31, 2024. To ensure comprehensive assessment, universities are conducting campuswide assessments, encompassing departments and storage facilities including off-site or satellite locations.

The upcoming required report to the legislature will detail the progress made by each campus in meeting this requirement. On July 8, 2024, Chancellor García issued a memorandum to each university to complete an inventory search and report findings to the Chancellor's Office by November 4, 2024. Information from the surveys will be shared with the legislature in December. The Chancellor's Office is working with universities to ensure any issues surrounding their inventory status is resolved in time to report the update to the legislature.

Fiscal Planning

The CSU 2024-2025 operating budget request included $4.25 million for NAGPRA/CalNAGPRA compliance and the Chancellor's Office has allocated the full amount. This was the first time that the CSU has allocated funding to universities for their repatriation efforts. In August, as part of the annual budget allocation process, the Chancellor's Office allocated $3.4 million to the 21 universities with collections. Each university was allocated between $115,000 and $200,000, with the universities with the largest collections receiving the larger amount. Universities may use funds to support repatriation-related costs, including, but not limited to hiring and training staff, supporting university committees, engaging in Tribal consultation, and fulfilling Tribal requests. Universities are also encouraged to use their existing funds in addition to the new allocations. Of the $4.25 million allocated, $550,000 was allocated to the Chancellor's Office to support the systemwide efforts that the auditor has recommended and AB 389 requires.

The Board of Trustees' adopted 2025-2026 operating budget request includes an additional $4.5 million for NAGPRA/CalNAGPRA compliance

Chancellor's Office Support

Earlier this year, the Chancellor's Office announced that it will establish an Office of Tribal Relations (OTR). OTR will be located within the Division of External Relations and Communication and its leadership will report to the vice chancellor. ASR will continue to lead the Chancellor's Office repatriation efforts until the OTR is fully formed and operational. The Chancellor's Office is in the process of hiring an executive director to lead the OTR. The position has been posted, a hiring committee has been established, interviews have taken place, and the goal is to have the office established before the end of the year.

State Legislative Update

Presentation By

Assistant Vice Chancellor
Advocacy and State Relations

Summary

The Legislature adjourned for the fall interim on August 31 and will remain in recess until December 2, when they will reconvene to swear in newly elected members and begin the new two-year legislative session. The Governor considered all bills passed by August 31 and took action on each by September 30. Bills signed into law by the Governor will go into effect January 1, 2025, unless the bill includes either an urgency statute making it effective immediately, or language that explicitly delays implementation until a specified date.

Legislative Session Review

The CSU and its universities enjoyed a successful legislative session. The Governor signed every bill sponsored by the Board of Trustees into law and vetoed several bills that if enacted, would have had challenging policy and fiscal implications for the CSU.

The success achieved this session would not have been possible without the active engagement from universities, trustees and key stakeholders. As a result, AB 2005 (Ward), a Board-sponsored bill, was signed and will allow the CSU's residential development partners to utilize Low-Income Housing Tax Credits to develop affordable housing for faculty and staff on university-owned land. A second sponsored bill, AB 2395 (Quirk-Silva), provides CSU universities flexibility to use professional and continuing education funds to develop and expand innovative academic programs in order to improve student access and workforce preparation. Several of the chaptered bills, which are summarized below, relate to Title IX, and CSU worked closely with legislators to address this important topic.

Governor Newsom vetoed a number of bills that would have had significant operational, financial or Master Plan-related impacts on the system and its universities. Vetoed bills included legislation authorizing community colleges to offer baccalaureates in nursing (AB 2104, SB 895), expanded tuition waivers (AB 3034), and new regulations around project labor agreements for public agencies, including the CSU (SB 984).

As we look ahead to the 2025-2026 legislative session, staff will continue to actively engage in discussions pertaining to college athletics, intersegmental coordination, basic needs, Title IX, and other issues.

End of Session Legislative Summary

The report is organized to reflect the Governor's actions as follows:

- Chaptered bills
 - BOT Sponsored Legislation
 - Senate bills
 - Assembly bills
- Vetoed bills
 - Senate bills
 - Assembly bills
- Bills that Failed to Advance to the Governor
